

Year 4

Dear Parents & Carers,

This will be our final Y4 newsletter of the year! We still have one more week to go, of course, but we are now allowing ourselves to look forward to the holidays! Your child will be bringing home artwork and last year's workbooks, so please make sure they continue to bring a bag with them next week.

You should have received a copy of your child's report on Thursday 12th July. Please see your teacher urgently if not. By the end of today (Friday) your child will have met their new Y5 teacher and will have spent an hour in his or her new classroom getting acquainted. Very exciting for all of us!

It only remains for us to wish you a peaceful and relaxing summer holiday. Thank you for all your support throughout the year. Let's just cross our fingers the sun keeps shining!

Happy Holidays!

ENGLISH

Writing task: my ideal teacher and my learning promise.

Your child will be bringing home a sheet to complete in anticipation of Y5. This will give them the opportunity to say what they might wish for in an ideal teacher and on the reverse to make promises to their new teacher (and to themselves) about their learning next year. Be warned, these will be passed on to the Y5 teachers!

Reading / Times Tables / Spellings

Please keep reading for 10-20 minutes every day. Practise your times tables for 5 minutes EVERY day. Keep practising a few spelling words every day. Don't forget the Y3/Y4 spelling list in the Fern Hill diaries for extra holiday revision.
