

This week's sounds:

This week we learnt 'j' as in jam and 'v' as in van. We have been practising formation of letters and having a go at writing some cvc words!

Challenge: Can you write some words using the sounds you have learnt so far? Remember to listen for the sounds!

Next week:

We will be looking at the story 'Aliens loves underpants' by Claire Freeman and Ben Cort. We made will draw story maps and use our imagination to think of our own stories. Can you tell a story at home?

Our focus this week:

We started our week with an alien invasion! We looked for clues and listened to Mr Waiting's eye witness report. We then read the story 'Here Come the aliens' by Colin McNaughton. We designed and made our own aliens and described what they look like!

Week ending 24/11/17
