Dear Parents and Carers,

We are becoming a Unicef UK Rights Respecting School!

Fern Hill Primary aims to be a school where children's rights are at the heart of our ethos and culture, to improve well-being and to develop every child's talents and abilities to their full potential. As part of this plan we are working towards recognition as a 'Rights Respecting School', an award given to schools on behalf of Unicef UK.

Unicef is the world's leading organisation working for children and young people and their rights. In 1989, governments across the world agreed that all children have the same rights by adopting the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC). These rights are based on what a child needs to survive, grow, participate and fulfil their potential.

Fern Hill Primary School pupils will learn about their rights by putting them into practice every day. A Rights Respecting School models rights and respect in all its relationships.

I really hope that you will be able to support our school on the journey to becoming a Unicef UK Rights Respecting School and can spend a few minutes reading through the Questions & Answers attached. You can find out more about the Rights of the Child and Rights Respecting Schools by visiting www.unicef.org.uk/crc and www.unicef.org.uk/rrsa

Yours faithfully,

Mr. A. Scott
