Sensory Needs

For parents of children aged up to 12

About the seminar

Sensory Needs is one of the Autism Seminars for Families which provides information and advice to parents and carers of children and young people with autism or on the pathway to a diagnosis of autism.

The seminar will help families to:

- > consider the different sensory systems and how they work together
- > examine how sensory information may be processed differently
- > discuss how children with autism may have different sensory experiences
- > share strategies and approaches to help with sensory needs.

Seminar cost

Families can book up to two places on the 'Sensory Needs' seminar for £10 each which includes a full resource pack of useful information, advice and support guidelines. This seminar is delivered by a seminar facilitator using materials they have bought from The National Autistic Society.
