

Phonics and reading

We have been practising reading words with different digraphs and trigraphs in them, for example car, boat, light, hear.

Can you spot any more digraphs in your reading books?

Maths

In Maths this week we have been looking at teen numbers. We have been practising using our counting skills and adding single digit numbers to bigger numbers e.g.
 $12+2=14$

We focused on this practically combining two groups together.
